

Insolvency and Restructuring

What we do

Whether you are a creditor or debtor, Nexus can advise you on all aspects of corporate and personal insolvency law.

In addition, we support business owners nationally and across industries by advising on, negotiating and implementing complex turnaround and restructuring plans.

How we do it

We partner with our clients' other professional advisors, including experienced insolvency professionals, to address the issues that arise for troubled companies.

By combining Nexus' corporate and personal insolvency experience with its expertise in complementary practice areas including:

- banking & finance;
- corporate & commercial;
- tax law;
- private client services; and
- dispute resolution

we deliver creative, commercially viable restructuring and turnaround solutions.

Our collaborative approach allows us to analyse all aspects of a problem or opportunity and to provide creative, informed and commercially focused solutions designed to protect and advance our clients' interests.

Who we do it for

Our clients include creditors, debtors, companies and individuals across a variety of industry including professional services, building and construction, pharmaceutical, franchise, retail, real estate, transport and manufacturing.
